

6. The Project for Construction of Potable Water Supply System in Kochvelili Village of Agstafa Region

The project constructed a new water supply system in Kochvelili village in order to improve the access to the potable water among the residents of the village. The total amount of the Japanese Grant Assistance for the said project is USD 103,092.

Handover ceremony

Water tank constructed by the project

Tap stand constructed by the project

